

Holy Week Retreat

ICONS: A Window into the Divine

with Iconographer Christine Hales

Holy Thursday Evening, Good Friday and Morning of Holy Saturday 2017

A prayerful retreat in which each participant will be guided in painting their very own icon. This amazing experience requires NO artistic ability only the desire to be present, pray, learn, and be guided in the process! This is an opportunity like no other for a Holy Week Triduum that will draw you close to the Lord and Savior, Jesus, even as we commemorate His Passion. Retreat schedule includes time for simple meals, prayer, Holy Week Liturgies, spiritual direction, silence, and one-on-one direction in the exercise of painting your icon!

Icon writing is a spiritual discipline that is a meditative way to engage in prayer and painting

Christine Hales is a well-loved teacher and iconographer whose icon commissions are at St. Vincent's Church in Albany, NY, the Spiritual Life Center in Greenwich, NY, as well as in many private collections. She has taught icon writing workshops and retreats for over 10 years, and her style of icon writing is both contemporary and honoring to the ancient traditions of iconography.
